

Dog Trainer Answer Key

Kids.gov: <http://go.usa.gov/cjCcP> | YouTube: <https://youtu.be/TG4II7yOtJQ>

1. Which government agency uses working dogs?

A: U.S. Customs and Border Protection uses working dogs.

2. Where do trained dogs work?

A: Dog trainer Bridget Hillard trains the dogs to work at airports, vehicle stops, and other U.S. border locations.

3. What types of dog do they typically train?

A: The dogs they typically train are Labs, German Shepherds, or Belgian Malinois.

4. How long do they train the dogs for?

A: The dogs train for 12 weeks.

5. What is dog trainer Bridget Hillard's favorite part of the job?

A: Dog Trainer Bridget Hillard's favorite part of the job is when her dog finds illegal drugs because it makes all the practice and hard work pay off.

Brought to you by

